

Barrett-Christie Co.

April 13, 1931

[Chicago, IL]

BARRETT-CHRISTIE CO.

PIPE TOOLS
FACTORY EQUIPMENT

STEAM SPECIALTIES
CONSTRUCTION TOOLS

108-112 NO. CLINTON STREET

CHICAGO

April 13, 1931.

To: Preferred Stockholders
of Lane Drug Stores, Inc.

IN REPLY PLEASE REFER TO

We take the liberty of enclosing a statement showing the comparison of the assets and liabilities of Lane Drug Stores, Inc., as of January 1, 1931 and at the beginning of its operations, October 11, 1928. Also such other information regarding this Company which we feel will be of vital interest to you as a preferred stockholder.

The facts as shown by the statement herein warrant united action on the part of preferred stockholders and a new deal for the Company.

We urge all preferred stockholders, who have not already done so, to forward their proxy for the annual meeting on May 12, 1931, to the Atlanta Committee who are opposing the further wasting of the Company's assets under its present management.

We have made careful investigation of the Atlanta Committee and are cooperating with such committee to the fullest in the firm belief that by so doing our interests will be properly protected.

Send the enclosed proxy form, properly signed and witnessed, to Hugh F. Dickson, Citizens & Southern Bank Building, Atlanta, Ga. This should have your earliest attention.

Yours very truly,

James G. Christie, Chairman, of Barrett-Christie Company.

W. Marshall Galloway,
of Neely & Company,

George A. Deveneau,
of Reuben H. Donnelley Corp'n.

Walter C. Graves,
of the Emerson Hat Company.

W. A. Richardson,
of Aurora, Ill.

Edmond C. Breese,
C.P.A. and Tax Consultant,
Milwaukee, Wisc.

